

Home Page Search Options

We offer several different types of truck type searches for the Home page. These can be hosted on most any website page, no matter the website provider.

COMMON WEBSITE SEARCH TYPES

Drop Down Menu Search - One of the most common search types for websites is the Drop-Down menu. The example to the left is for truck types, but we also offer Drop-Down menus for an Industry or service sector type, Body Companies, condition,

Image Search – Another popular search type is the image search. The image can be anything. The one to the left would most likely be for Dump Trucks but can represent more than just a single truck type. The image might represent an industry or service sector or body company,
